Army Orders-Signal Service.

The following is promulgated for the information and guidance of all concerned.

In accordance with the requirements of 207 of the Regulations and General Order, No. 118, current series from this office, I am instructed by the Lieutenant General commanding the Army to promulgate the following instructions...

The instructions as contemplated in paragraph 207 of the Regulations, should be constantly given, and practice should be had with signal equipment, at least two days in each week by a small signal detail.

The prescribed reports and returns will be regularly forwarded, through the proper military channels to the Chief Signal Officer of the Army.

Signals of improved signal equipment, including, but not limited to, all course of construction, and as soon as it is desirable to know what form of apparatus is best suited for use in each part of the United States, taking into consideration the various geographical, topographical, etc., and other conditions...

A certain popular young city driver for a wholesale house has a pet horse, which he has a trick which was not discovered by his friends until yesterday.

The New Anesthetic. "Eucaine," said a prominent druggist this morning, "the anesthetic that has suddenly achieved such an excellent reputation, has been known to me for a great many years, but for a long time was regarded as too expensive for general use."

They Sold Him. An old granger from the country stood last night under the gas light at Bell & Bros. jewelry show window, admiring the beautiful diamonds and fine gold watches displayed therein.

Always Wrong. Free traders are always wrong in their reasoning and generally wrong respecting facts. -Hamilton Spectator.

WASHINGTON, November 4.-The President to-day received a large number of telegrams from prominent Democratic politicians in all parts of the country, but especially New York, congratulating him on the result of the election in New York, as an unmistakable endorsement of his policy.

An Internal Revolution. Which enables the stomach to throw off the yoke of dyspepsia, is afforded through the aid of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a most efficient ally in warping with all disorders which affect the digestive organs, the liver and the bowels.

Care for Piles.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, legs and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A history, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching after getting warm, is a common attendant. Blood, bleeding and itching from the seat at once to the application of Dr. Bowditch's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, stopping the humor, relieving the intense itching, and effecting a permanent cure. Price in cents. Address, The Dr. Bowditch Medicine Co., P.O. Box 10, New York, N.Y. Sold by J. B. Fowler, H. Olin & Co., J. D. Irvine, J. C. Davis.
